The Motion Picture Association of Utah (MPAU) serves the film, video, interactive, and digital media production industry. It provides an opportunity for both Utah film professionals, businesses and enthusiasts alike to come together as a single organization. The MPAU is the sole entity for representing the motion picture industry to the Utah state government for the purpose of economic development through political action and legislation on financial incentives. We guide and protect the motion picture industry within Utah. Our primary goals are to market the Utah film industry and support the Motion Picture Incentive Program (MPIP) through lobbying efforts. We also focus on creating an environment that supports local businesses.
